PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On behalf of our Directors, the Flos Agricultural Society Executive, Committee members, and countless Volunteers, I welcome you to our 149th Elmvale Fall Fair.

Wow, 149 years. Think back to the first few years of the Elmvale Fall Fair. No cars, no phone, no internet. How times have changed!

Fast - forward to 2009. Here are a few things that have not changed in 149 years.

The friendly competition to become the premier exhibitor. Have you got more entries than your neighbour? It continues to be a great place to catch up with old friends and find out what has been happening near and far. The Elmvale Fall Fair has always been a showcase for area schools and a chance for parents to be proud of their children.

We can be thankful for a group of people, who many years ago, got together, and provided a forum for all the new and exciting things that happened in the community in the past year. This is continued on today by the many volunteers, sponsors, and participants who work to make each year a success. Next year when the Elmvale Fall Fair celebrates 150 years of Fair celebrations, Ken Bertram will be President. He will be the third generation to hold this post!

Let us all gather to celebrate the past and embrace the future.

Sincerely,
Al Kerslake

FALL FAIR AMBASSADOR

2008-2009

Lindsay Tinney

My name is Lindsay Tinney and I was very fortunate to be given the opportunity to represent The Flos Agricultural Society as the 2008 Fall Fair Ambassador.

I would like to welcome everyone to this year's Fall Fair. The Fall Fair offers activities for everyone young and old. It is a time to celebrate our community and our agricultural traditions. As Ambassador I have been given the pleasure of meeting many new and interesting people who have not only helped me learn about our heritage, but have become good friends as well.

I would like to encourage the young people in the community to come forward and participate in an important part of our Fall Fair. It was an exciting experience being in the parade, preparing speeches, presenting awards, attending the Toronto Convention and representing our Fall Fair at the Toronto CNE.

I have enjoyed my reign as the 2008 Fall Fair Ambassador and would like to thank the Fair Board Members and all of the other wonderful volunteers for their hard work and dedication to make our Fair a success year after year.
